

Collaborative Planning - Lessons Learned

Status:

In Progress

IWR Contact:

Darrell Nolton (Darrell.G.Nolton@usace.army.mil)

Purpose:

The purpose of this activity will be to: 1) examine existing Corps policy and pertinent legislation on collaborative planning to identify any possible constraints; 2) compile lessons learned from ongoing or completed studies that have utilized collaborative planning; 3) identify useful public involvement techniques that could facilitate collaborative planning; and, 4) develop a data base or other means of information exchange of "case studies" and useful/proven techniques and approaches for Corps planners.
